NOTES

*Communist China - USSR: Peiping has flatly rejected the Soviet plea for a cessation of polemics. In an authoritative commentary today in People's Daily and Red Flag, the Chinese blasted the "consultative" meeting of Communist parties held recently in Moscow and demanded that the Soviets capitulate on all major issues in dispute. Peiping claimed that Moscow's decision to convene the meeting had made it necessary for the Chinese to "criticize openly, and thoroughly expose" the revisionism of the new Soviet leaders. This direct attack makes it clear that neither Kosygin's visit to Peiping nor the confrontation between US and Communist forces in Vietnam has brought the quarreling powers any closer together. Libya: The dismissal of Prime Minister Muntasir on 20 March apparently resulted from his differences with King Idris, who has refused to go along with Egyptian President Nasir and most other Arab states in breaking relations with West Germany. Muntasir's replacement, former foreign minister Husayn Maziq, has in the past proved stubborn and troublesome on the issue of Wheelus air base. Given the circumstances of Maziq's assumption of office, however, it is unlikely that he will attempt to pursue a policy not in accord with the King's wishes. [redacted]
